Bob Doran's Orchestra Slated As Musicmakers for '51' Prom

Bob Doran and his popular dance band will furnish the music for the Spring Prom on May 12, Gene Finnell, chairman of the band committee, has announced. Finnell stated that the Doran aggregation was chosen out of several bands under consideration primarily because of its popularity throughout the state, particularly in this area, where the band has played a number of engagements.

Doran is an alumnus of St. Joseph's, having spent four years here in the Academy. "My desire to have my own dance band originated... on the St. Joe campus," Doran stated in explaining his musical background. After leaving Collegeville, he was a student at Purdue University, where his musical talents were given their first public expression in his sophomore year. In that year, 1947, he organized his band and began playing at a number of social events in and around Lafayette.

Third Engagement Here

This will be the third appearance of Doran's orchestra on the campus, the previous two having been Homecoming engagements. In addition to these dances and the many for which he has furnished music at Purdue, Doran has enjoyed success at "The Shades," near Crawfordsville, at DePauw University, and at Ideal Beach on Shafer Lake. He played at the popular Indiana resort last summer on a 12-night stand, winning acclaim for his band's "smooth and sentimental" style of music. Preceding him at Ideal Beach for a like engagement was Eddie Howard and his orchestra, while Vaughn Monroe's band picked up where he left off.

Early Construction Planned

The actual work of constructing this spring's "Velvet Evening" will get underway on April 23, when Don Clark and his cohorts will converge on the field house with plans and materials ready at hand. The time and labor required to construct the proposed Formally attired sisters and friends of St. Joe students will be hostesses of the party.

A feature of the evening will be the singing of the College Glee Club under the direction of Father Lawrence Heiman. Moderator of the Mothers' Club is Father Richard Baird, Admissions Counselor here.

Third Century Rome Setting of "Comedian"

With little more than three weeks of practice remaining, the cast and stage crew of The Comedian, next production of the Columbian Players, are working out the special effects to be used in the production.

Misses Kitty Ffrench, Betty Frank, and Mary Wrenn, of St. Xavier College, Chicago, who are taking the female roles in the play, come to Collegeville each week-end for concentrated practice session. The stage and set crews, under the direction of Dave Coady, have their biggest problems in the re-creation of an accurate picture of the furnishings of third century Rome.

Large marble columns and a small stage for the play-within-the-play sequences of The Comedian are now under construction.

The Comedian is the story of St. Genesius, the patron of actors, who was martyred, after he embraced Christianity, under the Emperor Diocletian.

Production dates have been set for May 6 and 7, in conjunction with Parents' Day on the campus.

Faculty and Seniors Head Academic Procession to Mass

This morning at ten o'clock the Patronal Feast of St. Joseph's is being liturgically celebrated in the College Chapel with a Pontifical High Mass sung by the Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, Auxiliary to the Bishop of Fort Wayne, in the presence of the Bishop of Lafayette, the Most Rev. John G. Bennett.

Scholarship Tests At Ten Centers In Three States

Competitive examinations for 16 scholarships will be conducted by St. Joseph's at 10 educational centers during the next few weeks. These scholarships, intended to assist Catholic high school seniors complete their education in a Catholic college, will be awarded by the college after objective-type examinations at widely separated places in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

The 16 scholarships, all partial tuition grants, include a top award of $1000, or $250 each year for four years; three scholarships at $800, or $200 each year for four years; five at $600, of $150 each year for four years; and seven worth $400, or $100 each year for four years. The awards will be made to the top 16 competitors, regardless of region.

Centers Named

Examinations will be conducted on April 21, at 9:30 a. m. at Bishop Noll High School, Hammond, Ind.; Cathedral Boys' High School, Springfield, Ill.; Fenwick High School, Oak Park, Ill.; and Leo High School, Chicago, Ill.

On April 28, at 9:30 a. m., centers for the examinations will be Cathedral High School, Indianapolis, Ind.; Central Catholic High School, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Central Catholic High School, Toledo, Ohio; and St. Rose High School, Lima, Ohio.

The examinations will be given on May 5, at 10:00 a. m., at St. Joseph's and at Marmion Military Academy, Aurora, Ill. They will require about four hours of working time and will be divided into a morning and an afternoon session, each lasting two hours.

Escorted in procession by the College faculty and the senior class in academic robes and visiting monsignori and priests in clerical dress, the Bishops will walk from the Faculty Room in the Administration Building to the Chapel for the celebration of the Mass.

Bishop Bennett Presides

Bishop Pursley will have Fathers Ildephonse Rapp and Joseph Hiller as assisting deacons at the throne. The Very Rev. President, Father Zanolari, will be assistant priest, and Fathers Martin and Gross will serve as deacon and subdeacon of the Mass. Two diocesan officials, Msgrs. Emil Schweier and Maurice Foley, will be masters of ceremonies. Bishop Pursley will also preach the sermon.

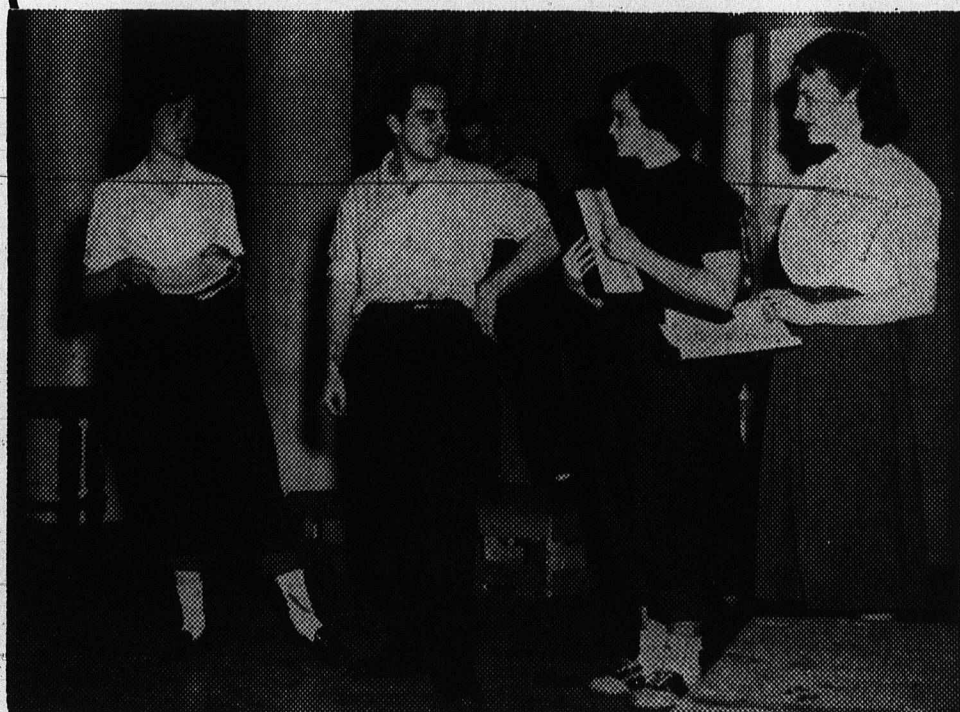

Bishop Bennett will preside at the Mass and will occupy a throne on the epistle side of the sanctuary. His assistant deacons will be two diocesan priests.

Week-end Retreat For High School Boys

A week-end retreat for Junior and Senior high school boys of the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana will be conducted on the campus, April 27-29, according to an announcement made this week by the Rev. Richard Baird, Admissions Counselor and Retreat Director.

The retreat will open Friday evening, April 27, with a conference by a retreat master not yet named. Five conferences will be given on Saturday, and the retreat will close at noon on Sunday, with a final conference and Papal Benediction. A program including conferences, meditations, question box, (Continued on Page Four)

Poor Criterion

The forthcoming examinations of college students in order to establish draft classifications seems to be a case of having only a yardstick on hand when a micrometer is necessary. The fallacies of this method of granting educational deferments are not easily discernible at first glance, but a Chicago educator set off an argument when he called the examinations undemocratic.

They may be, if undemocratic is taken to mean unfair and partial. It is true that no one has seen the test as yet, but some righteous questions as to its validity have arisen already:

What will be the basis for differentiation between freshmen and sophomores, sophomores and juniors, and so on? Is it fair to set any definite percentage of knowledge and say that this or that sophomore should have definitely X% more facts than this freshman?

Such an exam must be given on factual knowledge; the existence of entrance records including IQ tests obviates a necessity for further measurement of mental ability.

Because scholastic progress must be measured, what of underclassmen whose basic programs are in separate fields? And of upperclassmen whose major fields are even more definitely divided and concentrated? Can any single exam justly evaluate the knowledge and ability of two students, when that very knowledge is different in each case?

One must admit that some colleges are inferior to others. What of students in minor institutions which cannot possibly provide university competence? Are these students to be censured for not having what they cannot obtain?

The biggest question of all is this: what will it take to pass? Somebody, or some group of educators, is now deciding upon a number. They are going to have to set up an awfully thin line. Once they've got it, they'll be saying in effect, "Men on this side are not college material; men on this side are."

Considering the fact that no two people have the same degree of knowledge, or that a smart man can flunk, and a plodder pass, who can justly go about dividing humans into brains and bodies by the means of a number?

They might as well pick that number out of a hat.

Traffic Tragedies

One of the sorriest symbols of our times is America's automobile record.

The summing up for 1950 has just reached us from the Travelers Insurance Companies who each year publish an almanac of crash data. Of all the facts about auto accidents in their booklet, the most significant, it seems to us, is this:

Almost 500,000 casualties in 1950 were the direct result of speeding. One out of every three Americans who lost their lives in last year's wrecks met death because someone was driving too fast.

Speed has been causing a greater percentage of accidents year after year. In 1950, speed was a greater factor in traffic casualties than at any time in history.

Traffic laws and law enforcement are part of the answer. Engineering will help some. But even with perfect roads and perfect police work, the man behind the wheel can continue to exceed the speed limit, if he wants to, or if he isn't thinking.

Keep this in mind when you are driving. Stay within speed limits and you will be doing your full part in a crusade to reduce automobile accidents by one-third.

Use Consideration

Last week, your Student Council approved the appropriation of ten new decks of plastic playing cards for your use in your recreation hall. The appropriation was the result of several complaints by you, the students, about the playing cards now in use there.

The new cards will be ready for use within the next week or so. The matter does not end there, however. Unfortunately, it is necessary to set forth a reminder that the cards are for the use of all the students, and are therefore to be left in the rec hall at all times.

While the new decks are plastic and virtually unbreakable, they can be split or chipped by using extraordinary pressure. Such pressure is entirely out of place in an ordinary card game.

Care of the cards, then, is up to you, the students. Consideration for your fellow students in the matter will insure a good deck of cards for you, the next time you want to play.

Theatre Clinic At Mundelein Invites Students

A chance to attend the eighth biennial convention of the Catholic Theatre Conference, June 13-16, 1951, is offered by Mundelein College, site of the conference, to any student interested. More than a thousand directors of drama and students representing 500 member universities, colleges, high schools, and community theatres will attend.

His Eminence, Samuel Cardinal Stritch, will preside at the Solemn Pontifical Mass which will officially open the conference.

David B. Itkin, director of the De Paul University department of drama and co-chairman of the convention, will introduce the keynote speakers: Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of directors of Radio Corporation of America, and Emmet Lavery, noted playwright, who has written "Song of the Scaffold," and other plays equally popular.

The conference will include several productions by the groups present. Rosary College's drama department will present G. Martinez-Sierra's "Cradle Song," "Fenelon," by Emmet Lavery, will be given by the De Paul University Players, and Richard Sheridan's "The Rivals," will be presented by the Catholic Theatre of Detroit, a community C. Y. O. group. Some one-act plays by high-schools will also be on the conference agenda.

The four-day conference is open to any student who wishes to attend. Details may be obtained from Mundelein College, Department of Drama, 6363 Sheridan Road, Chicago 40, Ill.

75-Voice Choir Featured in Spring Concert

The annual Spring Concert of the combined glee clubs of St. Joseph's and the College of St. Francis, Joliet, Ill., will be presented in the College Theatre, here on April 20. The program will be repeated at St. Francis on April 29.

The concert will be presented in four sections, with numbers by each glee club alone, four selections by the combined St. Joseph's and St. Francis clubs, including "In Solemn Silence," "Ours Is the World," "Little Boy Blue," and "Three Frolicking Maidens," and two numbers, "Ol' Man River" and "Terra Tremuit," by the College Concert Chorus, made up of 75 voices of the Xavier Choir and the College Glee Club. Among the selections to be sung by the St. Joseph's Glee Club are "Dear Old Donegal," "Far, Far Away," and "The Cannibal King."

The local group will present a program in Chicago on April 14, when it will entertain at a card party sponsored by the St. Joseph's Mothers' Club of Chicago.

Gregorian Institute Meets on Campus

The Gregorian Institute of America will conduct a five-day session in liturgical music on St. Joseph's campus, June 25-29. Father Lawrence Heiman, professor of Speech and Music here, has been named registrar and student counselor, and has announced that the session will be open to laity and religious.

Subjects to be treated are Gregorian Chant, Choral Technique, Choir Direction, and Choral Direction. In addition there will be round table discussions in Liturgy, Organ, and Church Music.

Each day of the session will begin with a sung Mass, and will close with the chanting of Compline.

Between Halves

By FRANK GILLIGAN

The recent decision by President Truman to grant deferments to college students with good grades or who can pass an aptitude test has gladdened small colleges all over the land. It has especially raised the hopes of the majority of small college coaches.

Here at Collegeville it now looks plausible that we will field a football team next September. Before Easter most of the players were doubtful about reporting for spring training, as they didn't expect to be back next year. Now, with new hope in sight 43 boys are out for spring training, giving it their all. The return of seven regulars in the persons of Ed Schultheis, Bill Ferguson, Ed Gobett, Jerry Wenzel, Ernie Bidwell, Tom Paonessa, and Don Schubert may give the Pumas their strongest eleven in years. Norb Hummel is so enthusiastic over the Pumas chances that he has passed up baseball this year. Rugged Norbie plans to devote all his time to football. Don't miss the intra-squad game on May 3.

Biggest interest on the campus at present is the baseball team which is about ready to begin a rugged 17-game schedule. Everyone is wondering what kind of team we are going to field. The starting lineup for most of the games should read something like this: Bob Cahill, at first base, a newcomer who needs a lot of experience. Keller Riede and John Barrientos, two proven veterans, will be the keystone combination. Gene Ziemba, letterman from last year, will once again be on the hot corner. The outfield presents a real problem, with three standout regulars gone from last year's squad. Coach Scharf will probably start a garden combination consisting of Don Gorman, Boyd Reutebuch, and Reid Mackin. Fellows like Dick Costello, Tim Rooney and Cliff Beaver will also see a lot of action. The loss of Bob Doyle, a seasoned outfielder, has weakened the Puma defense, and Bob could also hit that long ball which the Pumas need so much this year. Smoky Malone should be the number one catcher, with Bob Soderstrom relieving. The pitching department is quite thin with Charley McDermott, Joe Pindell, and Tom Rogers being the only flingers who show promise. McDermott is one of the fastest throwing pitchers in the Conference, and if Mac can find his control, he will be unbeatable. An analysis shows an abundance of "ifs" on the team, but a lot of hustle and spirit should help the Pumas win their share of games.

Moving over to the tennis department, Puma chances look a little brighter. With that great combination of Joe Hawkins and Ed Pluth, Collegeville should see a lot of tennis victories. We are eager to see how the boys fare against a big school like Purdue.

The outlook is not quite so optimistic for golf, with only one returning letterman, Tom McNeerney. This looks like a rebuilding year for Coach Father Marcellus Dreiling.

Interesting Item: Bill Kukoy, North Carolina State's ace cager, and high scorer of the N. C. A. A. Tournament is the younger brother of Joe Kukoy of the Puma cage squad.

Before signing off we would like to laud Don Patterson, Puma baseball manager. Don suffered a very serious leg injury playing basketball, but is now out helping the baseball squad. We need more fellows like Don around here.

Spring Football Workouts Start

March 28 marked the end of an all too-short Easter vacation, but more important it was the 1951 debut date of spring football. Forty-two aspirants to football fame checked out renovated equipment and immediately began ironing out the kinks with a few light exercises.

"This spring the main objective is offense," was backfield coach Gene Fetter's comment. "The backs are working with the 'T' formation, while Mr. Jones' line-men are concentrating on offensive blocking rules."

Intra-Squad Game Set

Practice will terminate May 3 with an intra-squad game in which the Freshmen will send their best against the Juniors and Sophomores.

Exclusive of those out for baseball, the upperclassmen are represented by Cobett, Bidwell, Schultheis, Noll, Riggs, Schubert, Swanson, Schaaf, Paonessa, Wenzel, Basko, Ferguson, Meinert, Heriges, Klockenkemper, Frawley, Hummel, Biniak, and O'Callahan. The freshmen include Righeimer, Dine, Sims, Zimmer, Agnew, Molchan, Filiatreau, Arlington, Maden, Wagner, Dennis, O'Connor, Baldassari, Walsh, Carrigan, Newman, Surprise, Lynskey, Pfriem, Kobie, Candiano, Kuhn, and Moses.

Puma Net Squad Goes To Wabash for Opener

Seniors Squelch Sophomores in 41-29 Title Tilt

A group of seniors, sparked by the smooth-working Joe Hawkins and Ed Pluth, walked off with the inter-class tournament with a convincing 41-29 victory over the sophomores. Controlling both backboards at all times, the seniors were never headed after grabbing a 12-6 first quarter lead. In the initial period, Pluth hit for seven points, while Lynn Tabaka scored all sophomore points. At the end of the first half, the score was 23-14, with the seniors holding a commanding lead.

With the start of the second half, the sophs began to close the gap. Tom Paonessa sparked the rally that left the seniors with a 29-23 lead with which to work in the last eight minutes. But Joe Brosnahan's crew staved off a last ditch rally and went on to win.

The sophomores sorely missed the services of Joe Pindell and George Riggs, especially beneath the boards. It is interesting to note that Tom Schnieders, who scored 19 points in the game against the freshmen, scored only one point in the first three quarters, but five in the last period, and that was all the sophs had as far as rebounds were concerned.

Juniors Lower Boom

In the preliminary game, the juniors put on a scorching last period rally to defeat a hard-fighting freshman team, 52-35. The game started out nip-and-tuck and remained that way until midway through the last quarter. At the end of the first period the score was 12-8 juniors, and at half it was 22-18, with the upperclassmen still holding on to their slim lead. Paul Steigmeyer played a very steady game for the frosh and kept them in the game. The third period saw both teams pouring them through and the score stood at 33-27 with one quarter remaining. Some wild and woolly basketball was uncorked by both teams in the final period, with "Chick" Lampert swishing three long shots in a row to keep the frosh in the game. But that was their last scoring as Phil Stahl and Don Schubert iced the game for the juniors. Stahl led the junior assault with 13 points, while Paul Steigmeyer hit 12 for the freshmen. The first-year men might have made the game closer but for the fact that Fred Handler was injured in the first quarter and was unable to return to the game.

Hawkins and Pluth Combination Fourth Year on St. Joe Team

Returning lettermen Joe Hawkins and Ed Pluth take the court this afternoon to inaugurate their fourth season of intercollegiate tennis competition, when the Pumas invade Wabash College at Crawfordsville, Ind.

17-Game Slate for Nine; Purdue Rainout May Be Rescheduled

With the opening two-game series against Purdue's Boilermakers rained out over the weekend, Coach Dick Scharf was able to work in two extra days of much-needed practice for his Pumas' 17-game schedule.

The Purdue games have been tentatively rescheduled for this afternoon in a doubleheader on the Boilermakers' field.

Probable starter for the Pumas will be Sophomore Chuck McDermott, effective but wild right-hander. Handling him behind the plate is Senior letterman Ed "Smoky" Malone.

The only rays of light for Coach Scharf flash from the vicinity of second base, where veterans John Barrientos and Keller Riede handle doubleplay chores. "Barry" is coming back for his third year of shortstopping, while Keller returns for his fourth at second. The rest of the team has been heavily hit by graduation, but third base, with Gene Ziemba, and the outfield, led by Dick Costello and Boyd Reutebuch, are the strongest positions. Pitching, with no returnees, is the hardest hit.

The "tennis twins," undefeated last year in regular season competition, will be aided and abetted by Father Roof's current hopeful, Sophomore Tom Schnieders. Schnieders, perhaps better known for his steady punting performances last fall for the Puma gridgers, possesses a style and build which almost carbon-copy Hawkins and Pluth, and will be a great help to the squad this spring.

The other two position on this afternoon's five-man affair should be tossups between Don Clark, Andy Davey, Bob Braithwaite, and Don Nowicki. The first three mentioned, all upperclassmen and veterans of a year of competition, will be pushed hard by the steady Nowicki, a sophomore.

The net schedule, as released by Father Roof, looks like the toughest since the war, with such powers represented as Purdue, Indiana State, and Valparaiso:

Peters, Kacmar Are Chosen For All-Midlands Cage Squads

Capt. George Peters and Mike Kacmar have been named to the first All Midlands Conference basketball squad. Peters led Puma scorers this season with 292 points in 23 games and was named also to the Indiana Collegiate All-Conference squad. Kacmar, a junior and one of the most improved players in the league, counted 196 points for the Pumas throughout the season.

Conference Champion Loras College of Dubuque, Iowa, dominated the squad, taking four of the ten select positions.

Results were taken from a mail vote among the five head coaches in which each listed in the order of his preference the league's ten best players. Points were awarded on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

Loras center Jim McCabe took first place honors with 36 out of a possible 40 points. During the season he scored 688 points in 30 games for a 22.9 game average. Peters was third in the voting and Kacmar seventh.

Bob Smiley of St. Ambrose, Jack Rohan of Loras and Al White of Lewis College rounded out the first squad.

Roman Kosnar, of St. Norbert's, Mike Kacmar, Ted Moskal, of Loras, Tom Seekamp of St. Ambrose and Gene Ternes of Loras comprise the second five.

Other Pumas mentioned in the voting were Jack Wilz, Joe Kukoy and John Barrientos.

12, 16-Inch Softball Leagues in Action

Entries for this year's intramural softball league have been handed in and play is expected to commence with the first sign of better weather.

As usual, there will be two leagues, a 16-inch and a 12-inch. The program is again under the direction of Mr. Fred Jones. Games will be played on the two diamonds north of the field house.

There are six teams entered in each league and a new plan to add interest to the play and make it a more rounded out affair is being considered. The plan is to have each team play both 16 and 12-inch ball on an alternating basis. This, however, is not yet definite. Night games are also under consideration, but no decision has been reached.

Med Candidates Take May Exam For 1952 Classes

Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1952 are advised to take the Medical Admission Test in May, it has been announced by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical Colleges. These tests required of applicants by a number of leading medical colleges throughout the country will be given twice during the current year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 12, 1951, or on Monday, November 5, 1951, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1952 take the May test.

Science Review Needed

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which gives details of registration and administration, as well as sample questions, are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must reach the ETS office by April 28 and October 22, respectively, for the May 12 and November 5 administrations.

Xavier Mission Unit Opens Paper Drive

A drive for the missions which merits the support of every student has been inaugurated by the Dwenger Mission Unit of Xavier Hall. Members of the Unit under the chairmanship of Paul Schaaf are collecting old newspapers and magazines, and notices of the drive have been posted in all halls on the campus.

Paper collected will be bundled and sold to local dealers and the proceeds sent to the 16 Precious Blood missionaries, all of whom are alumni of St. Joseph's, laboring in Chile, South America. The Fathers are working under very primitive conditions, and their charges are among the poorest of the poor.

The current drive is something of a "feeler." In the event that it succeeds, the Mission Unit plans to make it a permanent project.

Anita Lipp, Concert Violinist, Shows Technique and Promise

By UTAH CUMMINGS

Collegeville's classical music lovers were slightly disappointed last Tuesday evening, when Anita Lipp, concert violinist, gave a performance in the College Theatre, the last in the current Speckhaugh Memorial Series.

Perhaps because of difficulties beyond her control, Miss Lipp's performance was not quite up to par. She showed little feeling through a major portion of her selections, and her technique was ragged in spots. The artist's regular accompanist was unable to make the trip to St. Joseph's, and his substitute Mr. Fritz Siebach, showed by poor coordination that he had not worked with Miss Lipp.

Final Number Best

The first half of the program was marked by fine artistic feeling only in the adagio sequences of Bruch's Concerto in G Minor. As the program advanced, however, Miss Lipp's expression and technique improved. Perhaps her best performance was the final selection, Polonaise in D Major, by Wieniawsky.

Miss Lipp is only 21 years old and undoubtedly has a brilliant career before her. Her command of her instrument is remarkable for one so young. This critic regrets that her regular accompanist was not with her at St. Joseph's. With him at the piano many of the more patent flaws in the performance might have been eliminated, and Miss Lipp would have played with greater ease and feeling.

Seniors Consider Class Memorial

The Senior class discussed three subjects at a meeting held last Thursday night:

1. The class gift. Several suggestions were made, including a monsternce for the chapel, an arch for the entrance to the campus, a set of books for the library, and a TV set for the proposed Noll Hall Rec Room. Joe McGrath, Senior president, appointed a committee of four to pick the gift and set the assessment. The committee includes Ed Collins, Joe Reedy, Tom Johnson and David Coady.

2. The class picnic. Because of a conflict with the Veterans Club picnic, the originally proposed date of May 3 will be changed. McGrath named Bob Doyle, Ernie Stockman, Gerry Garren, and Paul Scheiber to handle the affair and set a definite date.

3. McGrath spoke shortly on the subject of alumni relations, requesting that members of the class be chosen from the various areas such as Indianapolis, Chicago, and Ohio, in order to provide a means of contacting the class after graduation. He voiced a desire for regular reunions, and for support of the Alumni Association.

The next meeting is set for April 25, at which time, the committees on the class gift and picnic will report.

Students Lecture At Biology Meet

The meeting, tomorrow, of the Biology Club will feature talks and demonstrations on Microtechnique by Joe Krushansky, and on the history and geographical distribution of malaria by Cotter Tharin.

At a meeting, last week, Father Joseph Smolar spoke to the group on the origin of retina chords in chick embryos, which was the subject of his master's thesis. Also a color movie on microscopy was shown.

The recently founded club, which is open to any student interested in biological studies, is organized informally with no regular officers and no dues. The aim of the group is to promote interest in things biological by means of lectures and demonstrations and also by means of symposiums and talks by the members themselves. Father Clarence Kroeckel is moderator.

Student Council Controls Funds

Last week the Student Council of St. Joseph's was given control of the Student Activities Fund, to be used at the Council's discretion for the various student activities. Until now, the fund has been a conjunctive sum with the Student Welfare account.

Income for the fund will be from student fines, and from any other legitimate sources approved by the Council. (Last year, the Council considered a campus carnival for this use.)

The fund will be administered by the Student Council, under the treasurer, Joe Brosnahan, and kept in the college bank, according to Joe McGrath, Council president. The treasurer will make a monthly report to the Council, and the books will be audited once each semester by the college treasurer.

One of the first uses of the fund by the council was the appropriation of new playing cards for the recreation hall.

New Bowling Alleys Named, Maple Lanes

The bowling alleys at the north end of the campus have a name. At a meeting held last Wednesday evening, the judges of the contest for naming the alleys chose the name "Maple Lanes" from the 150 entries submitted in the "Name-It" contest, conducted by Ross and Joe Rowen, owners of the alleys which are near completion.

"Maple Lanes," the winning name, was submitted by Harold Ekstrom, Goodland, Ind., who won an ebonite bowling ball for his prize-winning suggestion. Second prize, a leather combination bowling bag was won by Mrs. Irene Padgett, Rensselaer, and the third prize, a pair of bowling shoes, went to John S. Jackson, Rensselaer.

Judges in the contest were Father Boniface Dreiling, local professor, Mrs. Amos Davison, Jr., and Mr. Dale Boyle, both of Rensselaer.
